The date range for the Class Time and Topic Report can be viewed in one to twenty week intervals. You can adjust the time date range and intervals by clicking on the “Change Date Range” link. By default, the report will show the amount of time each student has spent per day in ALEKS, and you can also include totals for each week and month that fall within the selected date range.

In this example, the date range has been changed to reflect two weeks of student data with totals included by day and week.
